

...Social and Personal...

As the end of St. Martin's Summer draws near, one feels like turning back the hands in the clock of time and living over the glorious sunshine of November, which has proven good its right to be called "November the golden," so full of brightness and cheer have its days been. There is an old saw which says that if St. Martin's Day, November 11th, be bright, crisp and clear as it proved last Monday, a severe winter is foretold. As prophecies concerning the weather usually run by contraries, however, one may as well infer that the next four months are to be phenomenally mild and pleasant.

Thanksgiving, always a joyous social as well as a religious festival, will this year be preceded by a list of debutante receptions and teas, at which Richmond buds have been having a royal time. The Thanksgiving german is to take place this year in the auditorium of the Jefferson Hotel, and the young men are to be hosts of the evening. Arrangements for it are in the hands of Miss Caroline Armistead and Miss Lillian Binford, and the patronesses and chaperones include many of the smartest society women in the city.

The November brides will divide interest with the society debutantes this week, for the marriage of Miss Mary Flavelly Drake to Mr. James I. Pritchett, Jr., of Danville, Va., will be celebrated at 6:30 P. M. of Wednesday next, the social position and unusual popularity of the bride and groom-to-be rendering the prospective wedding an affair in which Richmond and Danville society is deeply interested. Another Richmond bride for whom wedding bells will ring this week will be Miss Elsie Boykin. She and Miss Drake have the same date and the same hour to be given in marriage, only Grace Episcopal Church will witness the nuptial ceremony uniting Miss Boykin to Dr. Francis H. Smith. In the midst of such otherwise joyous occasions a regret will intrude itself, in so far as both brides are concerned, and that is that one will have her future home in Danville and the other in Leesburg, W. Va., and so be a distinct loss to the society contingent of Richmond.

Entertainments have been given for several of the buds of this season. Among them Miss Maria Milnes, Miss Myra Chambers, Miss Lucy Parke Taylor and Miss Elizabeth Wheat. The Misses Johnston will give a reception at their home, No. 110 East Franklin Street, to-morrow afternoon, in honor of Miss Elizabeth, and a dance for her and her young friends the evening after at the Jefferson Hotel. Mrs. Julius A. Morris will give a reception, followed by a dance, on the evening of November 22d, to Miss Elizabeth Kent King, her debutante niece, and to Miss King's guest, Miss Hattie L. Smith, of Ohio.

One of the most elegant entertainments of the year was given at the Executive Mansion last Wednesday evening by the Governor of Virginia and Mrs. Swanson, in honor of their distinguished guests, Major-General Frederick Dent Grant, of the United States Army, and Mrs. Grant. Profusely decorated with roses and palms, the beautiful rooms of the historic building made an appropriate setting for the handsomely gowned women and the gentlemen, as well as from Richmond, to do honor to the occasion and themselves. The hospitality dispensed was truly delightful.

No musical event has made a more favorable impression on Richmond society than the Gadsdi song recital, given Wednesday evening last, when Mad. Gadsdi won her way to the hearts of her audience by her beautiful rendition of a varied and most comprehensive program. Many ladies intending to go directly from the concert to the reception at the Executive Mansion, were in full evening dress, and the audience was thus very brilliant in appearance.

Woman's Club.

The subject for discussion at the Woman's Club on Monday afternoon will be "The Bible a Literary Necessity," which will be treated by Dr. W. W. Moore, of Union Theological Seminary, whose enviable reputation as an orator makes further comment unnecessary.

Miss Alice Leigh will be chairman of the day, and the hostesses, Misses Julius A. Morris, Mrs. Charles A. Dixon, Mrs. Peyton Giles and Miss Fanny G. Halburton. On Wednesday, at half-past 4, the Literary League will meet to discuss George Meredith, under the direction of Mrs. L. R. Dashiell, and on Friday evening, promptly at 8:15, the first whist tournament of the season will meet to indulge in a game of compass whist.

The usual club rules will be observed—that is, members may invite gentlemen partners or play with one another, but no ladies, residents of Richmond, may be asked.

Coming Weddings.

The wedding of Miss Pauline Beryl Shomaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shomaker, to Mr. Edwin Oliver Parkinson, of Norfolk, Va., will be celebrated Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, in Laurel Street M. E. Church. Miss Louise Heale will be maid of honor, and Mr. James R. Parkinson, of Baltimore, will be best man. The ushers will include Messrs. Stewart B. Parkinson and Joseph E. Harper, of Norfolk, Va.; Thurman Beale and Harry Wood, of this city.

A pretty wedding will be celebrated at 6 P. M. Wednesday, November 20th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Burgess, No. 248 Harrison Street, Petersburg, Va., when their daughter, Ella Louise, will be given in marriage to Mr. Richard Fuller Gaskins, of this city, the Rev. She will be attended by Miss Annie May Gaskins, her maid of honor, gowned in white and carrying La France roses, and by two cousins, Miss Susan Diehl and Miss Mary Ramos, who will officiate as bridesmaids. The wedding will be in pink, and have clusters of maidenhair ferns. The ribbons will be held by little Lou Burgess and Burgess Nelms, whose costumes will carry out the general color scheme of pink and white.

Mr. Alfonso Taurman, the groom's cousin, will act as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Gaskins will go for a wedding trip, and after December 1st will make their home at No. 1228 Floyd Avenue.

Marriott-Haskins.

Much interest centers in the approaching wedding of Miss Nannie Nebbett Haskins, daughter of the late Dr. Charles Haskins, of Blackstone, Va., to Mr. William McKim Marriott, cashier of the Richmond post-office, and son of the late Colonel William H. Marriott, of Baltimore, Md.

The ceremony will take place at 3 o'clock P. M. of Tuesday, November 19th, in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Blackstone, the Rev. John V. Downman, of All Saints' Church, this city, assisted by the Rev. Thomas Hugo

Lacy, the bride's cousin, and the rector of St. Luke's, to officiate.

The bride, gowned in white and carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, will be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Carter Haskins. Miss Bena Haskins, her sister, in white and yellow, will be maid of honor, and have a sheaf of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. Lane Lacy, of Richmond, will act as best man. Mr. W. A. Land will be master of ceremonies, and Messrs. John Keese and Richmond Long, of Richmond, the ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Marriott will leave by the 6:42 P. M. train for Jamestown, Exposition and Boston, Mass. On returning they will make their home at No. 206 North Harrison Street.

Lacy-Staples.

The marriage of Miss Jessie C. Staples, of Waldo, Va., to Mr. William H. Lacy, Jr., of this city, was celebrated Tuesday, November 12th, at 5 P. M., in the parlor of Rev. E. H. Melton, of Barton Heights.

The bride was attired in a suit of blue broadcloth with hat and gloves to match, and carried a white Bible. She was attended by Miss Mamie Gray as maid of honor, and Mr. Harry Lacy, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Lacy left immediately after the ceremony for Jamestown. After spending several days there, they will visit some of the Northern cities.

Madison-McCorkle.

Invitations have been received in Richmond from Mrs. Mary Campbell McCorkle, of Norfolk, Va., for the marriage of her daughter, Rebecca, to Mr. John Patterson Madison, of Norfolk, to be performed at 5 o'clock of November 27th, in No. 583 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Ga., where Miss McCorkle is now visiting.

Mr. Madison was formerly associated with the Virginia-Pilot, of Norfolk, and is now with the New Orleans Item. He and his bride will live, after December 10th, at No. 731 St. Charles Street, New Orleans.

When they return they will live at No. 2900 Monument Avenue, this city.
